

INSTRUCTUPDATES

Avoid the Pitfalls of Curriculum Implementation

Our latest blog dives into the common challenges schools face when implementing a new curriculum and offers practical tips and tools to help you avoid them. Whether you're already navigating these challenges or just starting out and anticipating what could go wrong, we have resources to help.

Check it out

5 Questions About Reading Curricula That Can Help Multilingual Learners

Is your reading curriculum meeting the learning needs of your multilingual students? This blog post presents questions and resources to help your team evaluate materials.

Learn more

What we're learning from

- 8 Tips for Welcoming Newcomer Students and Families to Your School

This video blog from Colorín Colorado Colorado presents some important steps you can take to welcome multilingual learners and their families into your school community.

- A New Framework for Elementary Education

This report from New America and The Children's Equity Project presents 14 ingredients for equitable and effective elementary education, including transformative leadership, a child-centered vision, and authentic family engagement.

- AI in Professional Learning

The latest report from the Research Partnership for Professional Learning examines the current use of AI in teacher PL and explores its potential for enriching teacher learning experiences.

- Driving High-Quality Math Materials

This learning series from the Center for Education Market Dynamics highlights the pivotal role district leaders play in getting more high-quality materials into math classrooms—and features our partners in West Contra Costa Unified School District in California!